CLUB STUFF

The January show is really getting better and better. As far as Lenape goes all judge contracts are signed and back. The hotel has given us a two year signed contract and the new dates are approved by the AKC.

If this is great here is a bit of news that is even better, 2015 show will be held along

With the Long Island Bulldog Club. The club voted, last month, that we will work with them to design a 4 show weekend and guess what they are as excited as we are. 4 shows one weekend. Long Island will have Friday evening, both clubs will share the Saturday and we will have a Sunday show. We are busy Getting any questions answered and the few details worked out. Report of what has happened at this meeting and every meeting going forward.

Come on out to the meeting and get involved we need everyone help especially with a new date in 2015.
